Synopsis :

Review "These incisive and witty essays bring the turbulent decade into sharp perspective." I have known and admired the Marathon investment team for over a decade. They are among the best in the world: fiercely independent, often contrarian and always thought-provoking. their Global Investment Review is must reading in our firm. Capital Account should be studied by every serious investor. "In today's financial markets, heavily populated by momentum traders, chartists and closet indexers, investors are a rare breed. This book, written by investors, is a good guide for people trying to understand how markets work." Read more About the Author Edward Chancellor is the author of Devil Take the Hindmost: A History of Financial Speculation (FSG, 1999), a New York Times 'Notable Book of the Year', and recently ranked as one of six indispensable investment classics by Money magazine. He has contributed to a variety of publications including The Economist, Financial Times and The Wall Street Journal and is currently a columnist for Breakingviews, the award-winning financial commentary service. Marathon Asset Management (trading in the United States as Marathon-London) is an independent, owner-managed investment firm based in London. Founded in 1986 by William Arah, Jeremy Hosking and Neil Ostrer, Marathon has successfully applied longer-term and often contrarian investment strategies around the globe.
